

As a faithful listener of satellite radio, and as a beleiver that the airways are for the benefit of the general public, I am opposed to any regulations that would prohibit my satellite service from carrying local news, traffic, weather, or other information that benefits the public. I see this threat as simply an act stemming from the disgruntlement of the competition, and request that the FCC recognize it accordingly.